Dear colleagues and friends,

Hereby we invite you cordially to the 15th General Assembly of EURODIR to the Evangelische Hochschule Darmstadt. The meeting is scheduled 24th to 27th October 2013. The detailed program you will find on the next page. We put it under the theme:

Financial crisis in Europe and political decisions regarding the education and trainings for the social sector.

For the General Assembly the following decisions are on the schedule:

- 1st The election of a new Steering Committee.
- 2nd The election of the board-members
- 3rd Actual and future Activities.

Around the meeting we will continue with information about the programs of our partners. Please prepare some information about your organisation around the question: What is the significance of EURODIR for our institution and our program? We will have lectures and workshops (European Credits can be received) also and there will be a cultural program as well.

Please confirm your participation immediately then we can make a room reservation for you. If you know when you will arrive give us the information too. Then we can organise the pick up at the airport or other places.

I hope I have given all necessary information about the next General Assembly to you. If you have any question, please contact us. (Tel.: +49 (0)6151 879839 or 879842), e-mail: hosemann@eh-darmstadt.de or seelisch@eh-darmstadt.de

Looking forward to meet you.
Best regards

Dagmar Hosemann
